Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-12 and 16-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Burns (U.S. 4,624,253).

Burns discloses in figures 1-3, a lancet body (16) disposed within lancet housing (12); an operator (18) engaged with the lancet body (16); at least one resilient projection (38) extending from the lancet body (16) and at least one resilient projection (40) extending from the housing (16).

3. Claims 1-12 and 14-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schraga (U.S. 5,908,434).

Schraga discloses in figures 1-3, a lancet body (30) disposed within lancet housing (20); an operator (60) engaged with the lancet body (30); at least one resilient projection (48) extending from the lancet body (30) and at least one resilient projection (76) extending from the housing (20); and wherein the operator (60) is connected to the lancet body (30) by a snap engaging connection.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1, 12, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Marshall et al. (U.S. 5,611,809).

Marshall et al discloses in figures 1-3, a lancet body (3) disposed within lancet housing (1); an operator (including pin 16 (2)) engaged with the lancet body (3); and wherein the operator (2,16) is breakable from lancet body (3).
